This is not a skills gap. It is a clarity gap.

You know a lot. But when someone asks, the explanation runs long and you both end up more confused.

*Marami kang alam.
Pero pag tinanong ka na, mas lalong nakakalito.*

● I have too many interests, I cannot pick one.

● Who am I to teach this?

● The market is saturated, maybe no one will buy.

● I do not know who this is for.

*Which of the four feels most true for you right now?
Tick your answer.*

You do not need to be THE expert. You only need to be a few steps ahead.

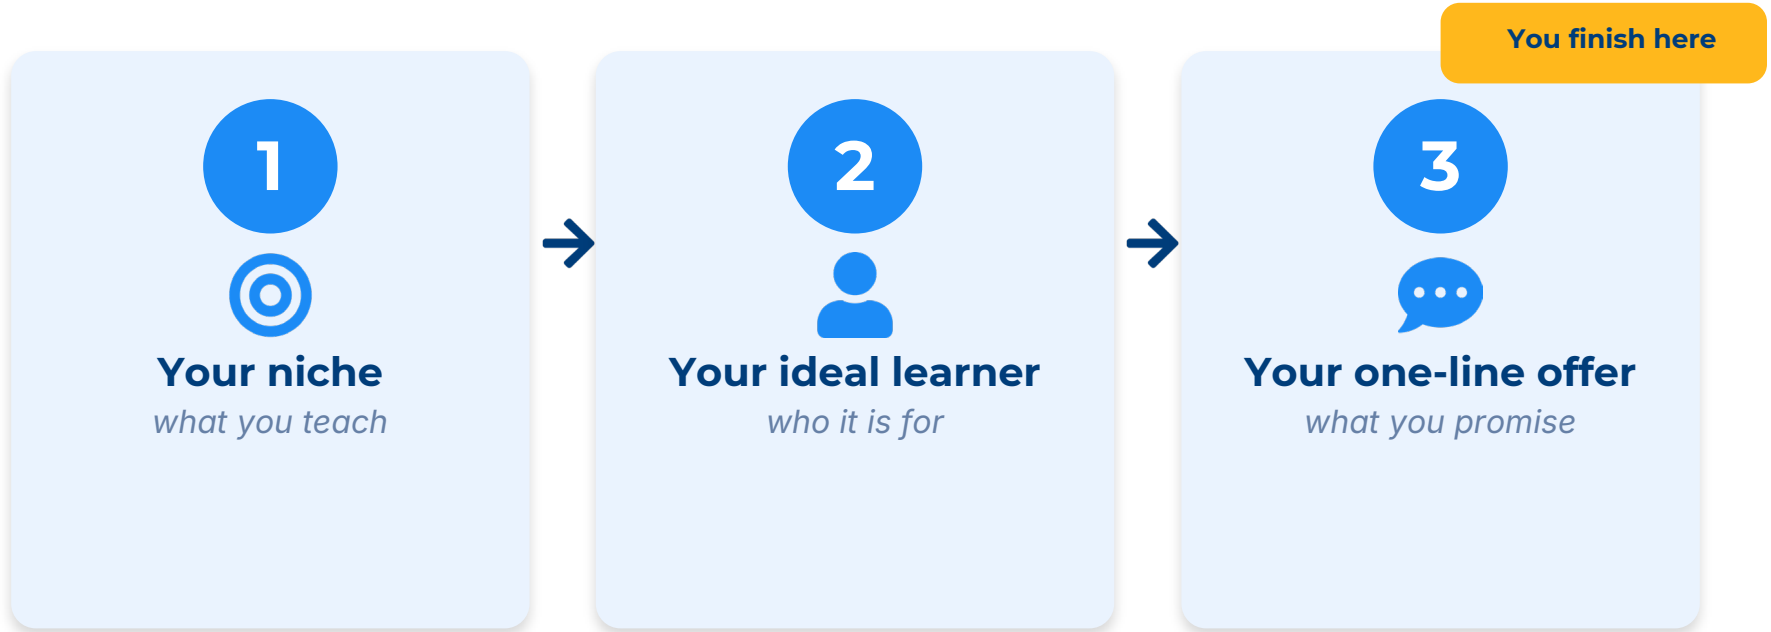

You do not need to know everything. You need to be a few steps ahead of the person you want to help.

Kailangan mo lang maunang magsimula.

You are ready.

Three sentences. One sitting.

Clarity Coach

Clarity Coach is the WyzLab AI mentor for this step. It asks the questions that surface your niche, in plain language.

Use the AI you already have, or take the guided path with Clarity Coach. The thinking is the same.

May AI ka nang katulong. Gamitin mo.

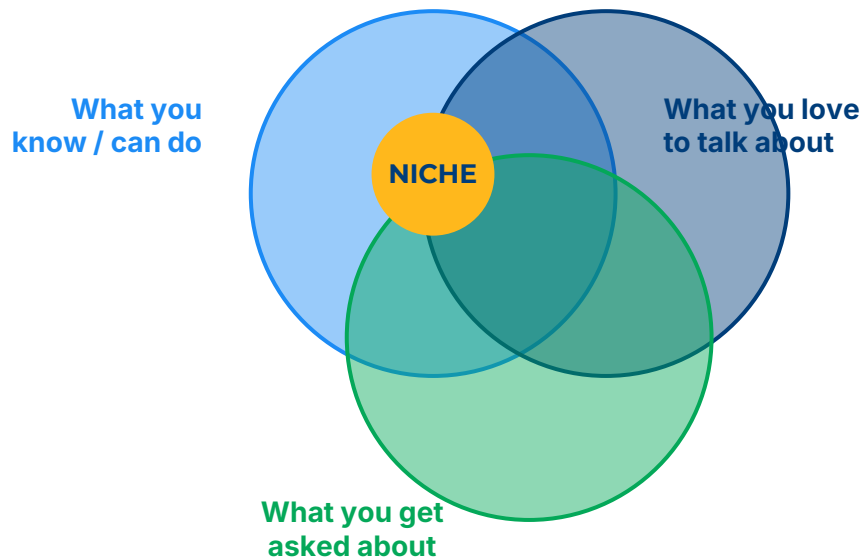

USE AI TO HELP

"Act as my course Clarity Coach. Ask me one question at a time to sharpen my niche, my ideal learner, and a one-line offer. Then give me a tighter version of each."

Paste this into any AI you already use, or the free WyzAI Assistant. Find it at wyzcore.com.

Where is your niche? In the overlap.

Your niche lives where three things meet.

Hindi mo din idisregard ang ibang interests mo. Pinipili mo lang ang sentence na akma sayo.

Answer three questions, find one niche.

Q1 · What do you already know or do well?

Q2 · What could you talk about for an hour without getting bored?

Q3 · What do people already come to you for?

My niche is _____.

Not "everyone." One person.

Designing for everyone makes a course no one feels is for them. Pick one person. Give them a name.
